Script Pack Summary

Recording Priority Order

Script 1 — Love Team or Breakup Team?

Fastest to produce and directly fixes the previous low-comment hook.

Script 3 — The Room Sings Back

Shows the actual event experience and has the strongest FOMO potential.

Script 2 — One Song, One Memory

Builds emotional depth, comments, and long-term account identity.

Fastest Win

Script 1 — Love Team or Breakup Team?

It requires only two hosts, two signs, one clear question, and no unconfirmed event information.

Longest Play

Script 6 — First Time at UR?

It builds a durable "welcoming Telugu music community" identity that can continue beyond the August 8 event.

Highest Risk, Highest Reward

Script 3 — The Room Sings Back

If the crowd footage is powerful, it can become the campaign's strongest discovery asset. If the footage is weak or the first frame is slow, its potential drops sharply.

Format Mix Check

- Reels: Scripts 1–10 = exactly 10 Reels
- Carousels/comparison carousels: Scripts 11–20 = exactly 10 Carousels

What Not to Do

1. Do not open discovery Reels with a logo, poster, venue exterior, or registration details.
2. Do not use unconfirmed song titles, venue information, prices, setlists, or timings.
3. Do not publish “Part 1” or “Part 2” without a separate, specific promise.
4. Do not make every post a generic “join us” announcement.
5. Do not use unrelated memes or celebrity bait that attract followers unlikely to care about Telugu sing-along events.
